

I believe that concentrating all media forms such as TV, Radio and printed news in a market or Metroarea under one hat eliminates diversity of expression. Freedom of speech is meaningless without the means to disseminate information. Keep existing FCC standards and don't succumb to monopoly pressures. Ruth Neuwirth